

Banners Everywhere

Banners everywhere
Birds reflected in window...
UUs bow their heads.

Nothing silent here,
UUs are talking about...
How best to govern.

Robert's rules are gone,
Replaced by democracy...
In the form of straw.

How to dismantle?
We try to peer inside hearts...
Fear is encrusted.

Can we dismantle?
Someone walks away from door...
They are not welcome.

Banners everywhere
Birds reflected in window...
UUs bow their heads.
